

Inside

...every lesson

You follow the Subject Way.

You complete all activities and beyond.

You communicate confidently, politely, and respectfully.

You answer questions and listen to others.

You ask your teacher if you are unsure and ask other questions about your learning.

You act upon the feedback from your teacher.

You help others who are struggling.

Rules

You attend school every day.

You arrive on time and are fully equipped.

You wear the correct uniform.

You treat others with kindness and respect.

You do as you are asked the first time.

You walk around school sensibly.

You put your litter in the bin.

You look after classrooms and equipment.

You only use your phone in seated areas at break times.

Outside

...every lesson

You follow the Wickersley Way.

You complete what you need to do before the next lesson, e.g., home learning, wider reading, and documentaries.

You know the topics you are studying, what you've studied before and what is coming next.

You know if you are on track for your target grades or statements.

You take part in activities that push your learning beyond the classroom.

You prepare and revise for your assessments and exams early.
